School Accountability Committee (SAC) Member Application

While all community members are welcome to volunteer and provide input to the School Accountability Committee (SAC), a minimum of three parent positions, one administrator position, one adult member of an organization of parents, teachers, and students recognized by the school (e.g. PTSA), one teacher position, and one community member position are available on the committee. Once the minimum is met, additional members may be selected for a maximum of 15 committee members. Only committee members may be part of a committee vote. MRES Leadership Committee and Zone Leader will be responsible for SAC member selection.

Please tell us more about yourself and your interest in the SAC. Required information is marked with an asterisk (*).
